CIA SHENANIGANS

Who knows what the CIA is up to?

One place to find out is in the new magazine, CovertAction Information Bulletin. Carrying on in the tradition of the old CounterSpy Magazine, the bulletin is published by Philip Agee and a group of investigators who have spend several years researching U.S. intelligence operations.

The first issue includes articles on myths about the CIA; anti-Castro Cuban right wingers and destabilization in Jamaica.

Subscriptions for six issues are $10 for the U.S., $15 for Canada and Mexico. Write: CovertAction, PO Box 50272, F St. Station, Washington, D.C. 20004.
